

LOCAL SEASON OPENS SUNDAY

Glendale and Athletics Will Play Ball at East Lake
Park—Good Game Likely
—Other Interesting Sport
Gossip.

The baseball season will open in Arizona Sunday afternoon when, at 2:30, the Glendale team will tackle Kennedy's Athletics at Eastlake park. Both these teams are well known to local fans. They played scrappy ball last season and have retained their lineups almost intact. Practice has been going on for some time and the leaders of both aggregations are confident that they will be able to put up a splendid specimen of the national pastime.

Kennedy says that his club is stronger than ever. In Smith he has a shortstop that hits a stiff pace and with Niles, Godfrey and Patterson holding infield jobs, he should be able to present an array of basemen that will play a good brand of ball.

The Glendale team has annexed some Phoenix stars, among them Knowles and Norton, who are both well known to those who have followed baseball in the valley.

The price will be two bits.

The lineup follows:
Athletics—Smith, sr.; Godfrey, p.; Castle, c.; Niles, 1b.; Kennedy, 2b.; Patterson, 3b.; L. Quirós, cf.; J. Quirós, rf.; Gonzales, lf.
Glendale—F. Irving, ss.; H. Miller, p.; J. Norton, c.; Dickriving, 1b.; Williams, 2b.; Knowles, 3b.; W. Miller, cf.; Buttcher, rf.; Scott, lf.

It may be that the baseball magnate did not return to Chicago from Cincinnati as was expected. Again, he may be waiting until he can give a definite answer to the invitation. Many rumors were prevalent on the streets, the principal one being that the Chicago Americans would train at Gabection.

Manager Griffith of the Washington Nationals has set his foot down on booze-histing. He says that men can not play baseball and punish drinker, and that when he hires players it is to stick to baseball—not monkey with joy juice. Griffith remarks that he will enforce his rules against drinking rigidly and that the man who doesn't obey will get all that's floating in his direction.

The old water wagon is commencing to lose its load. The first man in Phoenix to drop off did so because he couldn't sleep. Needed just a couple of fingers—in a wash tub—to help him see Morpheus. He slept nineteen hours straight after the dope had been administered.
